Course descriptions may be found <https://lasalle.mx/oferta-educativa> List of courses requested must be included in application: <https://academia.lasalle.mx/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/Learning-Agreement-incoming-2024-final.pdf> Course registration takes place during orientation week.

For undergraduate programs, students must register between 4 and 9 courses from the same faculty. For graduate programs, students must register between 3 and 5 courses. Course availability: Academic offering.

Language of instruction and language requirements

Students must have an upper-intermediate level of Spanish to enroll the mobility program and present an official B2 certificate (DELE or SIELE). Otherwise a Spanish exam will be applied. Spanish classes have an extra cost and offer academic credit. Costs will be provided at your arrival at La Salle. For the MIEX program, a TOEFL iBT score of 92 is required.

Exchange Student Information

Application form and documents required

Through <http://bit.ly/LaSalleInternacional> the home university must do the registration online, attach the list of requested courses, and supporting documents in a single-color PDF:

- Application form: Download.
- Official transcripts
- Learning Agreement
- Social Media Profile (screenshot of your user)
- Official Spanish certificate (SIELE or DELE)
- Passport (ID image)
- Photo in JPEG format (No glasses, white background, no photoshop)

Health insurance requirements

Students must have an international health insurance plan with coverage in Mexico during all their stay. It must include repatriation of remains. Proof of coverage must be provided before arrival.

Accommodation

Universidad La Salle does not provide on-campus accommodation, but exchange students can request housing assistance or apply for Home-stays. Monthly costs range from $7,000 to $10,000 MX (subject to change), and the application deadline is 30 days before arrival. Students may do their own housing arrangements. Living in the Condesa-Roma area is highly recommended.

Air transportation

Universidad La Salle does not offer airport picking up service for students. Students should use an authorized taxi from the airport upon arrival. Service to the La Salle area has a cost of $30.00 USD approximately.

VISA Information

Student VISA is not required for one semester students. However, candidates must check if they are from a country that does require a Visa even if it is not for studying purposes.

<https://www.inm.gob.mx/gobmx/word/index.php/paises-requieren-visa-para-mexico/>

If coming for two semesters, students must acquire a student VISA in their home country, and request a Non-Immigrants Form within the first 30-days of arrival in Mexico. More information here.

Please consider that student visas do not enable the visa holder to work.

Cost of living (USD approx. Per month)

Housing: $350.00 to $600; food: $150.00 to $250; transportation: $10.00 to $20.00; cellphone: $10.00 to $15.00; other personal expenses: $100.00 to $150.00

Tips & Recommendations

- Get familiar with the public transport system of Mexico City, you will need the “Tarjeta de movilidad Integrada” which gives you access to the Metro, Metrobus and EcoBici.
 - Safety can be a concern, so it's essential to stay aware of your surroundings. If you're unsure about a specific area, ask locals where it's safe to go, especially at night.
 - Keep an eye on your belongings, particularly in crowded places like markets.
 - Many places offer student discounts, and some museums have free entry on specific days, so be sure to take advantage of these opportunities.
 - The city offers a lively nightlife scene. There's something for every taste, and many venues host themed nights or special events.
